MEN AT WORK TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The payment of wages will be governed by the relevant Industrial Agreement. Please read our Conditions of Employment carefully.

1. Employment will be on a casual basis unless otherwise indicated. As a temporary employee, Men At Work is your employer regardless of the length of the assignment, unless specific arrangements are made between Men At Work and the Host employer.
2. At all times it is expected that you will adhere to our WH & S documents (provided at induction), including wearing of personal protective equipment as directed. It is your responsibility to keep this equipment well maintained and presentable.
3. If any situation arises which you feel is outside of this document or safety is breached, it is expected that you shall bring the matter to the attention of your supervisor. If action is not forthcoming you must advise Men At Work as soon as possible.
4. Temporary employees on a shift in excess of five (5) hours will agree to take the compulsory unpaid one half hour lunch break and in excess of ten (10) hours will agree to take the compulsory unpaid 20 minute tea break.
5. All assignments are of a temporary nature unless specifically promoted as permanent. Temporary employees do not receive annual leave, sick leave or payment for public holidays as these components are built in to the hourly rate you receive on your assignment.
6. Each assignment with conditions, place of employment and contact will be discussed with you verbally. You are free to decline any assignment you deem unsuitable, however, once you accept an assignment you are committed to completing it.
7. Temporary employees, if requested, agree to move from one site to another.
8. The relationship regarding employment between Men At Work and the Host employer is subject to an agreement which applies for a period of 12 months after your introduction/placement. Any approach for direct employment within this time by temporary employee or host employer would breach the agreement and MUST be advised to Men At Work immediately.
9. Our pay week runs from Wednesday to Tuesday. Your timesheet must be authorised by the host employer and submitted by 9am each Wednesday morning. Payment of wages will be via Electronic Funds Transfer weekly. Payslips will be posted/emailed weekly.
10. If you injure yourself whilst at work you must notify your Supervisor and Men At Work HSR immediately. An Incident Report MUST always be completed even if no workers compensation claim is to be made. Any lost time must be accompanied by a Workers Compensation Doctors certificate, a general Doctors certificate is NOT sufficient.
11. Men At Work acknowledges a requirement of every Employee to comply with the relevant Workers Compensation and Injury Management legislation.
 - Employees are required to immediately notify Men At Work of any work related injury or illness and follow any reasonable instructions in respect of their medical treatment and return to work.
 - The company will ensure that appropriate first aid and medical treatment is administered as soon as possible.
 - The Workers Compensation Insurer or authority (if required) will be notified of all reported injuries within 48 hours.
 - The insurer & Men At Work will develop an injury management plan (RTWP) to coordinate the treatment and return to work of the injured worker. Injured worker MUST participate in Return To Work Program.
12. The use of mobile phones whilst at work is to be restricted to breaks, unless there is an emergency.
13. Temporary employees are required to keep confidential all "trade secrets" and information which becomes known to them in circumstances where it should be known or ought to have been known that the information is to be treated as confidential. The obligation of confidentiality exists both during the term of employment and after employment ceases.
14. Any employee established to be under the influence of illegal substances and/or alcohol in the workplace, or on company premises, will be removed immediately. This behavior may result in instant dismissal.
15. Smoking is prohibited inside any company owned buildings and a company vehicle, including cars and vehicles used for distribution of products and services and is only permitted during work breaks.
16. Any employee suspected or found to be committing serious misconduct which includes fraud (including falsifying time records), assault, stealing, pilfering or removing items belonging to Men At Work or Host employers without permission will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include instant dismissal.
17. Employees absent from work for a period of three consecutive rostered shifts without the consent of employer or without notification to the employer shall be deemed to have terminated their employment by abandonment.
18. Upon termination of employment, the Employee shall immediately return all documents, publications, manuals, uniforms and other property in the Employees possession as a consequence of employment.
19. I authorise Men At Work to provide my employment information to prospective employers & Men At Work the right to make independent enquiries regarding my work history if deemed necessary.
20. I confirm I have not withheld any information relating to my health/ability to work or ANY prior injuries or conditions.

I _____ have read, understood and agree to the terms & conditions above.
