TRAINING COURSE AIM

This combined course aims to provide participants with knowledge about the rights and responsibilities involved in the sale, service or supply of alcohol. Participants will also gain an understanding of current NSW gaming legislation to support harm minimisation and provide responsible gaming initiatives. It is a mandatory legislative requirement that you hold such qualifications to work in a bar or club environment. Participants will learn how to:

- Sell or serve alcohol responsibly
- Assist customers to drink within appropriate limits
- Provide responsible service of gambling
- Provide information and assistance to customers about problem gambling

UPON COMPLETION

Upon successful completion of these courses, participants will be issued with a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment and the NSW OLGR RSA/RCG interim certificates.

Note - Participants looking to use these qualifications in other Australian states should refer to the authority requirements for those states.

PRE-REQUISITES

You can participate in this training at any age, however you cannot work in RSA/RCG related jobs until you are 18 yrs old
